'Live a life that respects all the connections in your life. Connections with nature and with the ones you love.' To honour the wise words - the Earth & Essence environs and homes are placed in a quiet enclave just off the Kempegowda International Airport Road, and is set across 16.8 acres, divided into four phases of development. The homes at Earth & Essence are built around community spaces that build bonding and togetherness. Homes that are open, airy and bright.

The touch of green and the joy it brings is carefully brought into each home through open skylights, courtyards, and alfresco dining areas. Each home is built in levels - it ensures complete privacy and offers green views from various rooms. Apart from the greenery that will be in the home and around it, there is a rooftop terrace that can serve as a garden space. Each home is large enough to be called a villa. The focal point of every home is the open-tosky courtyard, which will give unique views of the beauty of the nature outside.

As for the location - Earth & Essence is located in the upcoming hub of North Bengaluru, which is a short and pleasant drive off Airport Road a neighbourhood where there are no looming sykscrapers, just wide open spaces. 755
